

Banglay IELTS

www.youtube.com/BanglayIELTS
www.banglayielts.com
Telegram: t.me/BanglayIELTS

Band 7 Helping Lines

Kicu valo laga jinish ak sathe!

Discuss Both Views Essay

1. Introduction

Sentence 1: Just introduce the Main topic!

Over the recent decades, have/has become an integral part of people's lives.
One of the most pressing/controversial/important issues in modern society is
These days, more and more is/are
In modern times, the issue of ...(noun phrase)..... has become highly controversial.
In the modern era have/has become an essential part of everyday life.
An increasing concern/trend for many people around the world is
One of the most pressing/controversial/important issues in modern society is Sentence 2: Make a simple contrast!

It is often said that however others feel that While it can be argued that, another opinion is that
There are those who say that however others believe that Many commentators are of the view that whereas others feel that While a common opinion is that other people feel that

Sentence 3: Tell what you want to say! (Thesis statement)

In this essay I will examine both sides of the argument and provide my overall opinion.
This essay will examine both sides of the argument and provide an overall opinion.

POWERED BY BANGLAY IELTS

Banglay IELTS

www.youtube.com/BanglayIELTS
www.banglayielts.com
Telegram: t.me/BanglayIELTS

2. Body Paragraph 1

Topic Sentence of the Body Paragraph 1:

Generally speaking, there is/are a wide range of /variety of/two main/a number of reasons why people believe that.....

Idea sentences: one for each idea (First view #1 & #2 from your planning)

Perhaps the main reason why people are in favour of is because.....

Perhaps the main reason why people think that is because

A further point in favour of/against is that

Secondly; Furthermore; In addition etc.

Supporting Sentences: to develop your ideas!

Example

For example,

A good illustration of this is that

Cause

This is because

Effect

As a result,

Double Comparative (More/more)

The (comparative adjective) (there is/are), the (comparative adjective) it/they will be.

Double Negative

Not Only X but also Y

(Past) whereas (Present)

Unlike in the past, people today + v

Conditional

Etc.

POWERED BY BANGLAY IELTS

Banglay IELTS

www.youtube.com/BanglayIELTS
www.banglayielts.com
Telegram: t.me/BanglayIELTS

3. Body Paragraph 2

Topic Sentence of the Body Paragraph 2:

Despite these arguments, there is also a case for the idea that.....

Despite these arguments, many people feel that..... for a number of reasons

Idea sentences: one for each idea (Second view #1 & #2 from your planning)

Perhaps the main reason why people are in favour of is because

Perhaps the main reason why people think that is because

A further point in favour of/against is that

Secondly; Furthermore; In addition etc.

Supporting Sentences: to develop your ideas!

Example

For example,

A good illustration of this is that

Cause

This is because

Effect

As a result,

Double Comparative (More/more)

The (comparative adjective) (there is/are), the (comparative adjective) it/they will be.

Double Negative

Not Only X but also Y

(Past) whereas (Present)

Unlike in the past, people today + v

Conditional

Etc.

POWERED BY BANGLAY IELTS

Banglay IELTS

www.youtube.com/BanglayIELTS
www.banglayielts.com
Telegram: t.me/BanglayIELTS

4. Conclusion

Sentence 1: Use only if you need some more words!

In conclusion, this/X is a topic which raises strong passions on both sides of the argument.
In conclusion, it must be said that X has become a complex issue with no easy solutions.
In conclusion this/X is a topic which is very relevant to modern society.

Sentence 2: Just say what you think! (Opinion)

I believe that, all things considered,
My personal view is that
I am of the opinion that
If we look at both sides of the argument, it is clear that
That said, I (do not) feel that
Despite arguments to the contrary, I feel that Having considered both sides of the issue, I would argue that

Last Sentence!

Conditional