

Set 1: Technology & Social Media (Related to describing a useful app or online activity)

1. How has social media changed the way people communicate in your country?
2. Do you think the advantages of social media outweigh the disadvantages?
3. How has technology affected relationships between family members?
4. Should governments regulate social media platforms more strictly? Why?
5. What impact does excessive screen time have on children's development?
6. Do you think traditional media like newspapers will disappear in the future?
7. How can technology be used positively in education?

Set 2: Environment & Pollution (Related to a polluted place or environmental issue)

1. What are the main causes of environmental pollution in cities today?
2. How effective are international agreements in protecting the environment?
3. Should governments impose higher taxes on companies that pollute?
4. Do you think individuals can make a real difference in solving environmental problems?
5. How has climate change affected weather patterns in your country?
6. What role should schools play in teaching children about environmental protection?
7. Will renewable energy completely replace fossil fuels in the future?

Set 3: Education & Learning (Related to a teacher or a subject you studied)

1. How important is it for children to learn a foreign language at school?
2. Do you think technology will eventually replace teachers in the classroom?
3. What are the advantages and disadvantages of studying online?
4. Should university education be free for everyone? Why or why not?
5. How has the education system in your country changed over the last 20 years?
6. Is practical skills training more important than academic knowledge nowadays?
7. What qualities make a good teacher?

Set 4: Work & Careers (Related to a job or a successful person in business)

1. What are the advantages and disadvantages of working from home?
2. How important is job satisfaction compared to a high salary?
3. Do you think young people change jobs too frequently these days?
4. Should companies provide more training opportunities for employees?
5. How has globalisation affected employment opportunities in your country?
6. What impact does artificial intelligence have on the future of work?
7. Is it better to work for a large company or a small business? Why?

Set 5: Advertising & Media (Related to an advertisement or a TV programme)

1. Do advertisements have a strong influence on what people buy?
2. Which is more effective: TV adverts or social media advertising?
3. Should advertising aimed at children be restricted or banned?
4. How has the way people get news changed in recent years?
5. Do you think online reviews are reliable sources of information?
6. What are the positive and negative effects of advertising on society?
7. How can consumers protect themselves from misleading advertisements?

Set 6: Travel & Tourism (Related to a place you visited or a holiday)

1. How has tourism changed the way people experience different cultures?
2. Do you think international travel will increase or decrease in the future?
3. What are the environmental impacts of mass tourism?
4. Should governments do more to promote domestic tourism?
5. How important is it for young people to travel and experience other countries?
6. What are the benefits and drawbacks of living in a tourist destination?
7. Has technology made travel easier or more complicated?

Set 7: Health & Lifestyle (Related to a healthy habit or sport)

1. Why do some people find it difficult to maintain a healthy lifestyle?
2. How important is exercise in modern society?
3. Should governments do more to promote healthy eating?
4. What impact does stress have on people's health nowadays?
5. Do you think traditional medicines are still relevant today?
6. How has technology affected people's physical activity levels?
7. Is mental health given enough attention in your country?

Set 8: Art & Culture (Related to a piece of art, music, or cultural event)

1. What role does art play in society today?
2. How has technology changed the way people create and enjoy art?
3. Should governments provide funding for museums and art galleries?
4. Do you think traditional art forms are disappearing in modern society?
5. How important is it for children to learn about their own culture?
6. What makes a painting or sculpture valuable?
7. Is globalisation threatening local cultures?

Set 9: Family & Relationships (Related to a family member or friend)

1. How have family structures changed in your country over the past few decades?
2. Is it better to live in a nuclear family or an extended family?
3. What challenges do working parents face in raising children?
4. How important are friendships compared to family relationships?
5. Do you think people rely too much on technology for maintaining relationships?
6. Should elderly people live with their families or in care homes?
7. How has the role of women in the family changed?

Set 10: Cities & Urban Life (Related to your hometown or a crowded place)

1. What are the main problems facing cities today?
2. How can governments make cities more liveable?
3. Do you think people will move away from big cities in the future?
4. What are the advantages and disadvantages of living in a big city?
5. How has urbanisation affected the environment?
6. Should cities invest more in public transport or private vehicles?
7. Is it better to live in the city centre or in the suburbs?

Set 11: Fame & Celebrities (Related to a famous person)

1. What are the advantages and disadvantages of being famous?
2. Why do some people want to become celebrities?
3. How does the media influence the way we view famous people?
4. Should children be protected from early fame?
5. Do you think fame today is different from fame in the past?
6. What responsibilities do celebrities have towards society?
7. Is talent the main reason people become famous nowadays?

Set 12: Change & Tradition (Related to a change in your life or a historical period)

1. Why do some people resist change while others embrace it?
2. How important is it to preserve traditional customs in modern society?
3. What changes have occurred in your country in the last 10 years?
4. Do older people find it harder to adapt to change?
5. Is rapid technological change always beneficial?
6. How can societies balance tradition and progress?
7. What role do young people play in bringing about social change?

Set 13: Shopping & Consumerism (Related to an online shopping experience or a product)

1. How has online shopping changed people's buying habits?
2. Do you think consumerism has a negative impact on society?
3. Should governments regulate advertising to reduce excessive consumption?
4. What are the environmental effects of fast fashion?

5. Is it better to buy cheap products or invest in quality ones?
6. How important are customer reviews when making purchases?
7. Will physical shops disappear in the future?

Set 14: Science & Technology (Related to an invention or a science subject)

1. How has science improved our daily lives?
2. Should governments invest more in scientific research?
3. What are the ethical concerns surrounding artificial intelligence?
4. Do you think space exploration is a waste of money?
5. How important is it for children to study science at school?
6. What impact will future technologies have on employment?
7. Should scientific discoveries always be shared internationally?

Set 15: Sports & Competition (Related to a sportsperson or a competition)

1. Why do some people enjoy watching sports while others do not?
2. Should professional athletes be paid such high salaries?
3. How important is competition in children's development?
4. What role does sport play in promoting international understanding?
5. Is cheating in sports becoming more common?
6. Should governments invest more in sports facilities for the public?
7. How has technology changed the way sports are played and watched?

Set 16: Books & Reading (Related to a book you read or a library)

1. Why do some people prefer reading books over watching films?
2. How has the internet affected people's reading habits?
3. Should governments encourage more people to read?
4. Are e-books better than printed books?
5. What types of books are most popular in your country?
6. How important is reading for personal development?
7. Will physical books still exist in the future?

Set 17: Food & Eating Habits (Related to a meal or cooking)

1. How have eating habits changed in your country compared to the past?
2. Is fast food a serious problem in modern society?
3. Should schools teach children how to cook healthy meals?
4. What impact does globalisation have on traditional cuisine?
5. How important is it for families to eat meals together?
6. Do you think people care more about healthy eating now than before?
7. What role does government play in promoting healthy diets?

Set 18: Holidays & Festivals (Related to a festival or celebration)

1. Why are festivals important in every culture?
2. How have festivals changed due to modernisation?
3. Should public holidays be increased or reduced?
4. What impact does tourism have on local festivals?
5. Do you think traditional festivals are losing their meaning?
6. How can young people be encouraged to participate in cultural events?
7. Are religious festivals still relevant in secular societies?

Set 19: Animals & Pets (Related to a pet or wild animal)

1. What are the benefits of keeping pets?
2. Should animals be used for scientific experiments?
3. How can we protect endangered species more effectively?
4. Is it ethical to keep wild animals in zoos?
5. What responsibilities do pet owners have?
6. Do you think people treat animals better now than in the past?
7. Should governments ban the use of animals in circuses and entertainment?

Set 20: Success & Achievement (Related to a successful person or achievement)

1. What qualities are most important for achieving success?
2. Is success more about luck or hard work?
3. How important is failure in the path to success?
4. Should society place less emphasis on material success?
5. What role do parents play in a child's success?
6. How has the definition of success changed in recent years?
7. Do you think money is the best measure of success?