

Step 1: Build Basic English Listening Habit

- 🎧 Listen to slow and clear English daily (children's stories, graded listening, BBC Learning English).
- Repeat and shadow (listen & say aloud) → helps train the ear for English rhythm.
- Websites:
 - BBC Learning English : <https://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/the-english-we-speak>
 - ESLPod : <https://tv.eslpod.com/>
 - Ello Listening - <https://ello.org/archive/>

Step 2: Practice Everyday Listening (A2 → B1 Level)

- Start listening to short conversations (restaurants, travel, daily life).
- Write down keywords, then check transcript.
- Don't worry about every word — focus on main idea + numbers, dates, names (common in IELTS).
- Websites:
 - British Council – Learn English Listening: <https://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/skills/listening>
 - ESL Fast Listening : <https://www.eslfast.com/>

Step 3: Move Towards IELTS-style Listening

- Begin with Cambridge IELTS Listening Practice (easy sections first: Part 1 & 2).
- Learn common question types:
 - Form completion
 - Multiple choice
 - Map/diagram labeling
- Practice with pause–listen–repeat–check transcript method.
- Websites: Banglay IELTS - <https://banglayielts.com/listening/>

Step 4: Train with Full IELTS Tests

- Do one full listening test (30 mins) → check answers.
- Analyze mistakes: Did you miss because of spelling, speed, accent, or losing focus?
- Keep a listening notebook: Write down new words, tricky spellings, and repeated mistakes.
- Practice under exam conditions once you're confident.
- Websites: Banglay IELTS : <https://banglayielts.com/real-mock-test/>

Step 5: Advanced Boost

- Listen to podcasts, TED Talks, news reports → train for fast accents + academic style.
- Practice note-taking skills → very useful for Section 3 & 4.
- Websites:
 - TED Talks : <https://www.youtube.com/@TED>
 - BBC Podcasts: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/podcasts>

🎧 Daily Routine

- 20 min → Listen & shadow slow English (BBC Learning English, ESL Fast).
- 20 min → Short listening practice (graded dialogues, check transcript).
- 20 min → Vocabulary & spelling (numbers, names, addresses, dates).
- 30 min → IELTS Listening Part 1 or 2 practice (pause–repeat method).
- 20 min → Replay with transcript + write missed words.
- 10 min → Error notebook (log spelling + listening mistakes).
